Key Responsibilities

In this role you will be a key contributor to:

- Digital communication: cross-channel content management (selection of visuals, text and picture editing, work with content management systems); regular performance analysis and monitoring of digital platforms and social media channels
- Media Relations: online monitoring of daily media reports; analysis of global media coverage and quarterly reporting; updating of press distribution lists; editorial research and writing of press releases
- Support of the team in additional projects in internal and external communication

Key Requirements/Skills/Experience

- Currently doing a Bachelor or Master degree (enrolment at university is a requirement for duration of the employment), preferably in Communications Science, Journalism, Business Administration or other relevant fields
- Fluent in German and English
- Ideally first experiences as a journalist/editor or through internships in the field of digital communication
- Good Communication skills and ability to work efficiently in a professional, international working environment
- Very good knowledge of MS Office tools (especially MS Excel, Word, PowerPoint)
- Basic knowledge with content management systems and photo editing tools
- High degree of accuracy, reliability, initiative and independent working style
- High self-motivation and active team player

Additional Information

- Start: as soon as possible, duration 6 months, extension possible
- Intern: Max. 38 hours/week

In order to consider your application in detail, we require the CV, Cover Letter and Enrolment Certificate from you. Please be so kind to upload them when applying to the role.
