

At SpeeXX we are building the future of learning. In large businesses and organizations around the world our solutions help millions of people understand each other better every day. We're looking for curious, hard-working leaders to join the team and help our global Fortune 500 customers to improve their corporate communications. So, join us for the position of

Working student - Product Marketing (m/f/x)

As a working student (m/f/x), you will support our product marketing in day-to-day business. You will work closely with the product management and marketing teams and ensure the creation of marketing material for new products.

Responsibilities

- Close cooperation and communication with product and marketing team (product management, design, marketing)
- Product marketing support in creating and updating marketing material
- Designing and localizing marketing collateral for customers and user
- Research and market observation on latest trends as well as competitive analysis

Requirements

- Registered student with a focus on marketing and digitalization
- Very good Excel skills and experience with Adobe CC
- Creative and digital mindset
- Proactiveness, curiosity and team player
- Video editing experience is an asset
- Fluent in English

Benefits

- Offices in Munich, Madrid, Milan, Paris, Pavia, Rome, Sao Paulo, and Shanghai
- 200+ great talents from more than 35 countries
- Join our internal working student program for further career opportunities
- SpeeXX Academy training programs will get you started quickly.
- Flat hierarchies, open culture, and fast decision-making
- Get a free language course and choose to work from any of our offices for a while

Interested? Just hit the apply button and we'll take it from there. We are looking forward to hearing from you!

Apply now!