

Working Student to support our Inbound Europe Team

Looking for an adventure, not a job?

Icebreaker is one of the most innovative and dynamic names in the apparel industry. We're a world leader in merino clothing and supply our outdoor, performance sport and active lifestyle ranges to more than 5,000 stores across 50 countries. We are headquartered in Auckland, New Zealand with regional offices in Vancouver, BC in Canada, Portland, OR in the United States and Munich in Germany. We also have smaller satellite offices in Zurich in Switzerland, Annecy in France and Melbourne in Australia.

We're also a network of talented people who care about each other and believe deeply in what we do. We're diverse, passionate, hardworking and fun. We work in an environment where you can be yourself and make a difference. We imagine the future and create it.

We're looking for a Working Student to join our Operations team based at our European Headquarter in Starnberg (Bavaria), Germany. Reporting to the Logistics Manager Europe, you'll be responsible to arrange and to track consignments, to process internal logistics requests and to check all freight forwarding into the European central warehouse.

You'll also be the liaison between HO Logistics, Suppliers, Carriers, Customs and our 3PL regarding shipping finished and merchandising goods to the EU Market to drive product availability and ultimately customer satisfaction.

You'll have opportunities to learn how nature is influencing the way we do our business. We work collaboratively, developing and testing prototypes as a team. You'll need to apply your thinking to projects ranging from simple to complex.

You'll work closely with the Global Logistics team and our freight forwarders to arrange in time deliveries at our warehouse at optimal costs.

To be successful in this role you'll bring:

- Studies in Business & Administration or equivalent studies, preferably focusing on Logistics
- Ideally, you've already made logistics/ freight forwarding experience during another internship, preferably in the apparel industry
- strong operational skills that enable you to work across a range of projects
- ability to think on your feet
- strong relationship building
- great time-management and prioritizing skills
- high skills in the use of MS Office, especially MS Excel, ideally ERP WMS experience

You'll also be:

- confident, enthusiastic and outgoing and have a natural ability to engage and persuade others
- collaborative with the ability to forge harmonious working relationships with others
- proactive and flexible in your approach to your work
- proven to thrive in a fast-paced, high-pressured creative environment
- enthusiastic for Icebreaker merino and its commitment to nature and sustainability

This position is temporarily limited until end of March 2019.
