Internships are an indispensable part of preparing for a career. By actively working for a potential employer, you’ll discover more about your strengths and weaknesses – and about your own career goals. Above all, you’ll make valuable contacts.

»Student und Arbeitsmarkt« provides comprehensive support for internships. We offer:
- Advice on internships in Germany and abroad
- Contact to employers in Germany and abroad
- An online marketplace with current internship vacancies
- Sponsorships for international internships
- A guide on finding a placement for an international internship
- An online database with internship reports
- FAQs on internships
- A comprehensive brochure on student jobs in Germany

The »Student und Arbeitsmarkt« course programme offers LMU students the opportunity to gain additional qualifications which will not only serve as career guidance, but can also help prepare them for their future career. These courses are open to students from all departments.

- Business administration and project management courses
- Publicity work / PR
- Marketing and sales
- Event management
- HR development / HR
- Technical documentation
- Business English for International Teams
- IT courses and touch typing courses

The seminars from our »Social skills« series are designed to help students develop soft skills in areas such as
- Presentation and rhetoric
- Identifying targets
- Communication and conflict management
- Time management
- Leadership skills
- Rhetorical and negotiation skills (English) and much more.

Register for the Student und Arbeitsmarkt newsletter to receive regular updates on courses, mentoring programmes, international internships / sponsorships and numerous events:

www.s-a.lmu.de/newsletter
The LMU mentoring programme teams students up with a mentor. These mentors are graduates who have successfully found their feet in the professional world, and who are now willing to give advice, support and encouragement to young people.

Mentors have the opportunity to share with motivated students. Many see the programme as a way of recruiting new talent for their company. Alumni come back into contact with their old university.

Mentees – the students who are being mentored – benefit from the experience and contacts of their mentors both professionally and academically. Mentors can give first insights into the working world and help prepare students practically for the changing demands of the job market.

› What are my prospects?
› How do I prepare my job application?
› Which key qualifications do I still need to obtain?

In addition, mentees and mentors have numerous opportunities for extending their networks by attending events such as our mentoring forum, Career Talk event or Open Mentoring Lounge.

Annette Tensil
Phone: +49 (0)89/21 80 – 54 40
tensil@lmu.de

Stephan Pflaum
Phone: +49 (0)89/21 80 – 12 92
stephan.pflaum@lmu.de

You’re looking for a casual job, a permanent position or an internship? Or you’d like to publish a vacancy at a central place in the LMU to find suitable applicants? “Student und Arbeitsmarkt” can help make your search a success. At the job, career and internship marketplace at www.s-a.lmu.de, you’ll find the latest vacancies for students and graduates.

Nahid Sharifi
Phone: +49 (0)89/21 80 – 21 91
s-a@lmu.de

FOR BUSINESS

With over 50,000 students, Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München (LMU Munich) is recognized as one of the best universities worldwide and makes its mark with its excellent teaching and research. We also make our mark with our career events, the exclusive and individual character of which distinguishes them from other recruiting events. We establish tailor-made contacts to students, who have reached a suitable level of academic competence in your desired field of studies.

Further information at www.s-a.lmu.de/arbeitgeber